

2pm
Admiring the MANDRILL behind a family with 4 kids.

How do they DO that?
And if I CAN'T, is there SOMETHING WRONG with me???

Viv finally gets her ice cream.

What's your favorite part of the zoo?

All of it.

Except wearing a mask.

PREMIER PINEAPPLE VANILLA SWIRL

Usually the sun & sky are BRILLIANT here, but today a heavy bank of clouds blankets the city. It's all brown and grey. But here we are.

at least there are SEA LIONS.

3pm We finally get to my favorite, the TROPICAL DISCOVERY exhibit

1 inch = 500 miles

In PANDEMIC TIMES, the ZOO path is ONE way only to minimize contact. There are no SHORTCUTS.

The AIR feels AMAZING.

anticyclimax of the day: KOMODO DRAGON!

(just sits there)

OMG it's Hourly Comic Day and I haven't even started. I'm a FAILED cartoonist

Mama, I'm tired.

Me too, Pibi.

4pm On the drive home I make FRANTIC notes while stopped at a railroad crossing in this week's episode of CIRCLE ROUND, we'll hear the story of THE FISHERMAN'S LEFTOVERS on a small green island in a vast blue sea

EVERYTHING looks kind of YELLOW today... is that because we're inside the BROWN CLOUD???

We've only been living in Boulder CO for 1.5 years now, most of it during PANDEMIC. It still doesn't feel like HOME.

5pm at home I put G in charge so I can write and draw from all those notes.

I totally OVERDID this.

No surprise there, heh.

How about I make dinner?

Well

Follow the RECIPE, OK?

(he never does!)

PIANO PRACTICE

Boy am I rusty.

This is taking FOREVER.
